

The Department of State refers the Embassy of Nicaragua to the Agreement Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Nicaragua Concerning the Imposition of Import Restrictions on Archaeological Material from the Pre-Hispanic Cultures of the Republic of Nicaragua signed on June 16, 1999, as amended and extended (hereinafter referred to as “the Agreement”).

The Department, on behalf of the Government of the United States of America, proposes that, pursuant to Article IV.A of the Agreement, the Agreement be extended for an additional five-year period.

The Department further proposes that, pursuant to Article IV.B of the Agreement, the Agreement be amended by replacing Article II of the Agreement with the attached revised Article II.

If the foregoing proposals are acceptable to the Embassy, the Department proposes that this note, including the attached revised Article II, and the Embassy’s note in reply following the attached example, shall constitute an agreement to amend and extend the Agreement, which shall enter into force on the date of the Embassy’s note in reply and shall take effect on October 20, 2015.

Enclosure(s):

As stated.
